

6516206528.txt

I pay for radio entertainment because the broadcasters in our are don't play what I would like to here. As long as I am paying I should be able to hear what I choose not what the federal government thinks I should be able to hear.Vincent M. Evans